

I am tired now, so let me rest, don't cry,
Don't you know that God knows best?
Please, no sad hearts, no hung down heads
Don't weep for me, for I am not dead
I have moved to another house
You know, where only God's redeemed can go
I do not need this house of clay
So tenderly, carefully, lay it away

Obituary

A blessing from God, Krista Liana Williams was born on July 13th, 1976 to proud parents Emmitt Jr. and Katie L. Williams. As an only child she was a joy to her parents and all who knew her. Known for her beautiful big eyes and her soft sweet voice, she had a gentle quiet spirit that spoke loud to everyone she loved.

Krista attended and graduated from The Bedford School system in 1994. She worked several different jobs after high school, but it was her nurturing spirit that led her to further her education in patient care.

Krista departed this earth suddenly and on Monday, January 07, 2013. She will be greatly missed. Krista was preceded in death by her father Emmitt. We find comfort in knowing that he along with other departed family and friends are anxiously awaiting her arrival in God's mighty kingdom. She leaves to celebrate her home going her mother Katie Williams, her son Immanuel Brown, a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
