

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade? Oh! but Jesus' arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth-- You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, oh, the joy to see you come!

Obituary

Shelby Wayne Yancey was born September 30, 1954 in Little Rock, Arkansas. He was the first born to Catherine Lewis and Eddie Yancey. By the age of four, Shelby was moved to Chicago and eventually became the big brother to seven other siblings, three girls and four boys.

Shelby attended and graduated from Chicago Vocational High School in 1972. He briefly attended King Kennedy College before he joined the United States Army and was stationed in Germany. After Germany, Shelby moved to Chicago, briefly lived in California, then to Cleveland.

Shelby is survived by his mother, Catherine Lewis; brother, Kevin Lamont, Kenneth Rodney, Walter Ronald and William Jr.; sisters, Valerie Ann, Charlotte Ruth and Maxine Laurie; and a host of nieces and grand nieces and nephews and grand nephews.

Palm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
