

THE SECRET:

I Promise Myself...

To be so strong that nothing can disturb my peace of mind.

*To talk health, happiness,
and prosperity to every person I meet.*

To make all my friends feel that there is something worthwhile in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make my optimism come true.

*To think only of the best, to work only for the best,
and to expect only the best.*

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as I am about my own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful expression at all times and give a smile to every living creature I meet.

To give so much time to improving myself that I have no time to criticize others.

*To be too large for worry, too noble for anger,
too strong for fear, and too happy to permit
the presence of trouble.*

To think well of myself and to proclaim this fact to the world, not in loud words, but in great deeds.

To live in the faith that the whole world is on my side, so long as I am true to the best that is in me.

Obituary

Estella Danzy Seals was born on May 4, 1923 in Cleveland, Ohio. She graduated from Central High School. She was the youngest daughter of Roswell and Leslie Danzy and married Arthur L. Seals. She retired from The Cleveland Veterans Hospital after 10 years of service do to health problems.

Everything happens when it happens and how it happens for a reason. This is not something I learned from My Mother, it’s something I learned because of her.

She gave Life everything she had, always with the intention of DOING THE RIGHT THING. She told me many times “I may not give you everything you want, but I will always give you what you need. She was true to her word.

Any successes I have had in MY LIFE has been because of who she was. She taught me to never give up, use what you have, and do what you have to do to get where you want to be. Sometimes I didn’t pay attention, sometimes I didn’t understand, but I always listened. There is one thing I learned on my own, and it was because of her passing. That was APPRECIATION.

IN THE LAST WEEK I HAVE DEVELOPED AN ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE.

SHE WILL BE MISSED!
