

May I Go?

Don't you think the time is right?
May I say goodbye to pain-filled days and endless lonely nights?
I've lived my life and tried my best, an example I tried to be.
Can I take the step beyond and set my spirit free?
I didn't want to go at first, I fought with all my might!
But something seems to draw me now to a warm and loving light.
I want to go! I really do! It's difficult to stay.
But I will try as best as I can to live just one more day,
To give you time to let me go and share your love and fears.
I know you are sad and afraid because I see the tears.
I'll not be far, I promise that, and hope you'll always know
That my spirit will be close to you wherever you may go.
Thank you for loving me. You know I loved you too.
That's why it's so hard to say goodbye and end this life with you.
So hold me now, just one more time, and let me hear you say
Because you care so much for me, you'll let me go today.

Obituary

Marvin Edward Ambers, age 60, was the second eldest child born to Norman (deceased) and Lillie Ambers in Cleveland, Ohio.

Marvin was educated in the Cleveland Public School System. He was a superb salesman for many years at Mike the Hatter of Downtown Cleveland. He was an avid viewer of nature programs such as Animal Kingdom and National Geographic. Most of all Marvin loved his hat!

Marvin leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife of 36 years, Carolyn; mother, Lillie Ambers; two sons, Sterling and Marvin Jr.; four siblings: four brothers, Jerome, Terry, Freddie and one sister, Nora; two grandsons, Marvin III and Marshawn; and a host of relatives, friends, and a special, dear and loyal friend, Mr. Knuckles.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
