

For all the times we forgot to say, "Thank You"

For all the little things you do,

For all the words that sometimes go unspoken,

We need to say:

"We Love You, Mommy"

"We Love You, Mama"

Judy Lien, aka Mrs. Lam Chin-Man, passed on peacefully in her sleep on Thursday, April 7, 2022, in San Mateo, California, at the age of 95, joining her beloved husband, CM, rest in Eternal Peace.

Judy was born in Singapore as Lien Geck-Choo to Lien Ying-Chow (1906-2004) and Wee Siew-Kim (1907-1987). She was the eldest of eight in the family, followed by Margaret, Tommie, Johnnie, Sonnie, Eddie, Lily, and Ah-Ling. In 1941, Judy's whole family fled their homeland a few months before the first air raid on Singapore. At that time, 14-year-old Judy and her seven siblings aged from 4 to 13 did not know that they would be away from home for such a long time.

Four years of turmoil, hardship, and suffering were finally over. A few years after the war ended, Judy met CM, who fled his hometown, Bandung, Indonesia, with his parents and seven brothers. To escape from the new regime, Judy and CM fled China in 1949 and finally settled in Hong Kong. They married and had a happy family of three boys and two girls.

A few years after CM's passing, Judy migrated to California and resided in San Mateo with her children, grandchildren, and two Pomeranians, Sofie, and Mochi. Her long and winding journey was bittersweet yet fulfilling and rewarding.

Judy will be sorely missed by her children: Fred (Lily), Joanna, Nathan, Ada, Darrick (Jackie), and grandchildren: Sonia, Hendersen, Cheryn, and Carrissa Lam.

Judy is also survived by her stepmother, Margaret Lien, brother, Tommie Lien (Rose), sister, Lily Kwan (Chee Yung), sisters-in-law, Mary Kwan-Lam, WC Ho-Lim, Wendy Lien, and Jessie Lien, as well as many cousins, goddaughters and godsons, nieces and nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews, one great-grandniece and counting, and numerous extended family members in Singapore, Hong Kong, Macau, China, Indonesia, England, Canada, United States, and Brazil.
