At birth we board a train and meet our parents. We believe they will always travel by our side. However, at some station our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone. As time goes by other people will board the train and siblings, friends, the love of our lives and others will step down and leave a permanent vacuum. Others will go so that we won’t realize they their seats. The train will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hello’s, good-byes, and farewells. A successful ride requires having a good relationship with all passengers. We must give the best of ourselves. The mystery to everyone is, that we don’t know at which station we ourselves step down, so, we must live in the best way, love, forgive, and offer the best. It is important to do this because when we step down and leave our seat empty, we should leave behind beautiful memories to those who will continue to travel on the train of life. Reap success and give lots of love. Wish all you meet a joyful journey of the train of life. Most importantly, thank God for the journey. Lastly, I thank you for being one of the passengers on my train.
