Margaret Ann (Gibson) Terrell was born in a bad blizzard on December 17, 1949 at the Smith Center Hospital which is now Ingleboro Mansion Bed & Breakfast. She grew up in a large family with her parents, grandparents, and siblings. She attended school in Kensington and after graduating she went on to beautician school in Holdrege, NE and also worked at the Town House Café.

She was engaged to Jerry Terrell after he returned from Vietnam and was married at Jerry’s parent’s farm north of Franklin on January 4, 1970. Marge and Jerry made their home in Hastings, NE for four months, and then moved to Holdrege, NE. From that union three children were born, Shayne Lean, Chad Evan and Chuck Earl.

After living in Holdrege for four years, Marge, Jerry and their three children made their home in Orleans, NE for the next seventeen years. She raised her family, grew large gardens for the first few years and worked at the Village Inn Café as a cook for eleven years. In 1991 Marge, Jerry and Chuck moved to a farm north of Smith Center and also worked at Paul’s Café for fifteen years as a cook and waitress. Marge was active in the Thornburg Church and truly enjoyed her family, friends, relatives, family reunions, playing cards, fishing and deer hunting.

She was preceded in death by her father and father-in-law Earl Terrell. She is survived by her husband Jerry of Smith Center; a daughter, Shayne Rupp of Ellis; two sons, Chad (Lois) Terrell of Loomis, Chuck (Alisha) Terrell of Orleans; her mother, Virginia Gibson of Abilene; four brothers, Bill (Margaret) Gibson of Abilene, Larry Gibson of Kensington, Kenny (Becky) Gibson of Agra, Andy (Rhonda) Gibson of Kiwin; two sisters, Peggy (Dennis) Dick of Smith Center, Judy Malone of Eustis; and nine grandchildren, Mikal Duane Terrell, Jessalyn LKae Terrell, both of Salina, Brooklyn Marie Terrell of Hastings, Cali Elizabeth Terrell and Marni Lynn Terrell of Loomis, Jacob Allen Craney, Garrett Lee Rupp, Carson Louis Rupp, Sammuel Martin Rupp all of Ellis, and one on the way which she was very excited about.
